

BEST PRACTICES – 2016-17

No.1

TITLE OF THE PRACTICE:

AWARENESS AND SENSITIZATION PROGRAMMES

OBJECTIVES OF THE PRACTICE:

To impart knowledge & to sensitize the students in various branches.

THE CONTEXT:

To make the students know the importance of Human Rights and their responsibilities as a citizen.

To face the effects of demonetisation, students were given awareness programme on cashless transaction.

To know the importance of Vote, an awareness programme was conducted.

Several essay writings, elocutions were conducted on various themes at college and district level.

THE PRACTICE:

Invited an eminent speaker Dr. S. Buchaiah, Retd. Principal, to deliver the lecture on Human Rights in connection with International Human Rights Day.

The college organized one-day district level seminar on Cashless Transactions. On the occasion, as Chief guests Smt. S. Lavanya, Chairperson, Sri. Venugopal, Commissioner, Municipal Office, Dr. A. Krishnamurthy, Associate Professor and Economist etc. were invited to give awareness to the students on Cashless Transactions.

The college organized one-day Sadassu on “Vote and Its Value”, and invited B. Rammohan Rao, President of Loksatta Telangana and AP as a chief guest to deliver the lecture.

Essay writing and elocution competitions were conducted on various themes to grace the occasions like National Science Day, Cashless Transactions, District Youth Festival, Moulana Abdul Kalam Azaad Birthday Celebrations etc.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS:

Several Staff and Students participated

No.2

TITLE OF THE PRACTICE:

YOUTH SINGAAR FESTIVAL

OBJECTIVES OF THE PRACTICE:

To extract the creativity and innovative skills from the students.

THE CONTEXT:

On 24th January 2017, to draw out hidden talents of the students, organized this festival.

THE PRACTICE:

Students exhibited different self-made articles, like Best out of Waste (Baskets, Bangles, Ear Rings, Wall Hangings, Decoration Items, etc.).

They also competed in excelling themselves in various categories like nail art, hair styles, mehndi, bridal makeup, etc.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS:

Participation of girl students and was a sort of encouragement for the other students. College wore a festive look on this occasion.